Thank you for taking the time to complete our questionnaire

Although we strive to reply to all enquiries, we regret that at particularly busy times this is not always possible. A complete and detailed questionnaire does help us to ascertain if the cat you are interested in is suitable for you and the cat's needs. However, if for some reason the cat you are particularly interested in is already being vetted for or doesn't match your needs, we may contact you in the future to discuss a cat who seems a better fit for your needs and requirements.

Good luck!
